

Dear fellow Singaporeans,

Greetings from the Singapore High Commission in New Delhi.

1. First of all, we would like to take this opportunity to wish all Muslim friends Selamat Hari Raya Aidilfitri and also to inform you regarding the upcoming Presidential Elections 2017 (PE17)
2. We would also like you to keep your date free for the coming National Day Reception 2017, which the High Commission will be organising on 11 August 2017. More details will follow in due course.
3. We would also like to take this opportunity to update all Singaporeans regarding the registers of electors have been revised and are open for public inspection from 20 June 2017 to 3 July 2017. The revised registers contain the names of all qualified electors as of 1 June 2017. The revision is to bring the registers up to date, as per the details below:
  - a) Singapore Citizens may check their particulars in the registers:
    - (i) Online at the Elections Department website (<http://www.eld.gov.sg>);
    - (ii) At community centres/clubs with their NRIC/passport;
    - (iii) At Singapore overseas Missions that serve as overseas registration centres with their NRIC/passport; and
    - (iv) At the Elections Department with their NRIC/passport
  - b) The addresses of the community centres/clubs, overseas registration centres, press release, additional information on the inspection of revised registers of electors and top 5 frequently asked questions (FAQs) are attached.
4. Last but not least, we would like to remind and encourage all overseas Singaporeans, especially those travelling to or living in India, Bhutan and Nepal to e-register with the High Commission at <https://eregister.mfa.gov.sg>. This will help enable us to contact and render necessary assistance in the event of an emergency or any crisis situation. You may wish to advice other Singaporeans to e-register if they have not already done so. Should you require any assistance, please feel free to contact us directly at the following numbers:
